Filing options

Married/Divorced

- People born on or before Jan. 1, 1954 may restrict an application to only spousal benefits, while delaying receipt of their retirement benefits and collecting an 8% per-year delayed retirement credit
- People born Jan. 2, 1954 and later should focus on whether to file early or file late while considering the implications of the decision on your future benefits and for a surviving spouse

Widow options

if the deceased did file

- Filed prior to full retirement age: maximum widow benefit equals the larger of deceased reduced benefit or 82.5% of deceased primary insurance amount
- Filed after full retirement age: maximum widow benefit equals the deceased benefit, including delayed retirement credits

Widow options

if the deceased did not file

- Died prior to full retirement age: maximum widow benefit equals the primary insurance amount of the deceased
- Died after full retirement age: maximum widow benefit equals the deceased benefit as if deceased elected on date of death, including delayed retirement credits
