

Hotel Petaluma

“Built in 1923 and officially opened April 22, 1924, Hotel Petaluma has welcomed guests for almost a century. Hotel Petaluma is the second hotel built on the site where it stands... A small group of visionary architects from San Francisco were contracted to draft blueprints to replace The Brooklyn, a small hotel ravaged by fire that sat on the corner of Washington and Kentucky Street... With its Art Deco interior and spacious mezzanine, Hotel Petaluma was a beacon for aristocrats...as the backdrop for social events, and as a means to connect with the community.”
