

Biography

Shari Freidenrich was elected as Orange County's Treasurer in November 2010 after serving as the Treasurer for the City of Huntington Beach since 1996. Shari was re-elected to the position in June 2014. She is responsible for overseeing the county's $6 billion investment pool and serves as a trustee for the $10 billion Orange County Employee Retirement System.

Prior to her work with the County of Orange, Shari was elected as the Treasurer for the City of Huntington Beach four times. Prior to that, Shari was a Controller for McDonnell Douglas Travel Company, a division of the former McDonnell Douglas Corporation (now Boeing Corporation). She also worked for McDonnell Douglas Corporation as an Auditing Specialist. She started her career with Deloitte & Touche, an international accounting firm.

She holds a Bachelor's Degree from Washington State University in Business Administration with an emphasis in Accounting and graduated summa cum laude. Shari is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) as well as a Certified California Municipal Treasurer (CCMT), Certified Public Finance Administrator (CPFA), Certified Public Finance Investment Manager (CPFIM), and Advanced Certified Public Finance Investment Manager (ACPFIM). She is a Past President for the Association of Public Treasurers of the United States and Canada and also a Past President of the California Municipal Treasurer's Association.